BACH MUSICA NZ

Music that touches the soul

Bach Musica NZ is one of New Zealand's most highly acclaimed musical organizations, made up of a professional orchestra and a 45 voice auditioned choir, conducted by Rita Paczian. We perform a wide range of music from Baroque to 21st Century, and are well known for NZ premieres of beautiful music from all over the world. Rita is assisted by Deputy Music Directors Dmitry Rusakov and Michelle Wong and our Concertmaster is Yanghe Yu.

In 2019, our performances included J.S. Bach's Mass in B Minor and the world premiere of NZ composer Andrew Perkins' The Birds, as well as music by Hummel, Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Vivaldi, Wagner and Dvořák.

Besides showcasing rising young NZ star soloists in 2020, we also feature international stars including Marlena Devoe, Martin Snell, Patrick Power and the 2019 Lexus Song Quest winner Joel Aмосa. In addition, the Auckland Youth Choir and the Auckland Girls' Choir will join us for Bach's St Matthew Passion.

Music & Artistic Director Rita Paczian is a freelance conductor performing in New Zealand and abroad. Her career has taken her to most European countries, Australia, South Africa, the United States and New Zealand, where she has made her home. Rita is also the Music Director of Hausmusik NZ (www.hausmusiknz.com) and in her spare time works as a professional tennis coach.

CRITICAL ACCLAIM 2019

BACH'S MASS IN B MINOR - APRIL 2019

Rita Paczian and Bach Musica NZ gifted us a timeless expression of grief and triumph from the stage of the Auckland Town Hall last night. From the outset, in the warm acoustic of the Great Hall, the audience was delivered into a hugely assured Bach sound. The best choral sounds in Auckland under a baton that was clear (almost autocratic when necessary) but drew a depth of resonance from band and singers that filled the ornamented chamber. The Bach Musica NZ Choir was a shining triumph. When Paczian directed herself to her group of singers, they gave every last drop of music. The beauty of this group is that each singer performs as if they are a soloist yet can blend like one sound. Performing Bach is not for the faint-hearted musician, it is technically as tough as it gets, Bach Musica NZ rose to the occasion with a huge depth of resonance and expressiveness. Thanks go to a fantastic line-up of soloists, orchestra, organist and choir but above all the huge talents of Rita Paczian for an evening of exhilarating Baroque vibrancy.

Clare Martin, Radio 13

Bach Musica NZ's declared disciples have become accustomed to Rita Paczian's astonishing music-making of the highest order... What followed was a spell-binding rendition of a work, interwoven with great energy, vibrancy, tenderness and beauty - an immortal work, forever leading to new discoveries and insights. Rita Paczian's alert, sensitive and understanding leadership from the podium and the harpsichord clearly supported her musicians in this sublime process - thereby lifting their horizons. It was performed by Bach Musica NZ as the great Master would have wanted it done.
